Enclosure: Attorney-Client Fee Agreement

ATTORNEY-CLIENT FEE AGREEMENT

Grey Ocean, PC ("Attorney") and Michael Leavenworth ("Client") hereby agree that Attorney will provide legal services to Client under the terms and conditions of this attorney-client fee agreement ("Agreement").

1. Conditions. This Agreement will not take effect, and Attorney will have no obligation to provide legal services, until: (a) Client returns a signed copy of this Agreement; (b) Client provides and stores a valid payment method through Attorney's billing system; and (c) Attorney acknowledges acceptance of representation by counter-signing this Agreement and returning a fully executed copy to Client. This agreement will apply to any services Attorney may provide in connection with the engagement before the conditions described above are met.

2. Scope Of Services And Attorney's Duties. Client hires Attorney to provide legal services as follows: review documents related to Client's employment with Parr3 LLC and advise Client on potential invention rights and restrictions. Attorney will provide those legal services reasonably required to represent Client. Attorney will take reasonable steps to keep Client informed of progress and to respond to Client's inquiries. This Agreement does not cover litigation services of any kind, whether in court, arbitration, administrative hearings, or government agency hearings. A separate written agreement for these services or services in any other matter not described above will be required.

3. Client's Duties. Client agrees to be truthful with Attorney and not to withhold information, to cooperate, to keep Attorney informed of any information or developments that may come to Client's attention, to abide by this Agreement, to pay Attorney's bills on time, and to keep Attorney advised of Client's address, telephone number and whereabouts. Client will assist Attorney by timely providing necessary information and documents.

4. Legal Fees And Billing Practices

4.1 Client agrees to pay by the hour at Attorney's rates as set forth below for all time spent on Client's matter by Attorney. Current hourly rate for Attorney is: $700.00 per hour.

4.2 Attorney's fees for services under this Agreement shall not exceed three (3) hours of Attorney's time, for a maximum fee of Two Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($2,100.00) (the "Fee Cap"). In no event will Client be charged fees exceeding the Fee Cap for services rendered under this Agreement.

4.3 The time charged will include, but is not limited to, the time Attorney spends on telephone calls, e-mails and other electronic communications relating to Client's matter, including calls and e-mails with Client and other parties and attorneys. Time is billed in minimum increments of one-tenth (.1) of an hour. Attorney will charge for waiting time and for travel time, both local and out of town.

5. Costs And Other Charges. Attorney may incur various costs and expenses in performing legal services under this Agreement. Client agrees to pay for all costs, disbursements and expenses in addition to the hourly fees. The costs and expenses may include notary fees, messenger and other delivery fees, postage, outside photocopying and other reproduction costs, travel costs including parking, mileage, transportation, meals and hotel costs, investigation expenses, consultants' fees and/or special master fees and other similar items. The foregoing external costs and expenses will be charged at Attorney's cost. To aid in the preparation or presentation of Client's matter, it may become necessary to hire experts, consultants or investigators. Client agrees to pay such fees and charges. Attorney will select any expert witnesses, consultants or investigators to be hired, and Client will be informed of persons chosen and their charges. Attorney will obtain Client's consent before incurring any costs in excess of $1,000.

6. Billing. Client authorizes Attorney to charge the payment method stored through Attorney's billing system for Attorney's fees incurred under this Agreement, up to the Fee Cap. Attorney will charge the stored payment method upon conclusion of the engagement, or periodically as fees are earned, in Attorney's discretion. Attorney will provide Client with a final accounting of all fees incurred and charges made. No advance deposit will be collected, and no funds will be held in Attorney's client trust account in connection with this engagement.

7. Client Approval Necessary For Settlement. Attorney will not make any settlement or compromise of any nature of any of Client's claims without Client's prior approval. Client retains the absolute right to accept or reject any settlement.

8. Discharge And Withdrawal. Client may discharge Attorney at any time. Attorney may withdraw with Client's consent or for good cause or if permitted under the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California and/or applicable law. Among the circumstances under which Attorney may withdraw are: (a) with the consent of Client; (b) Client's conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the Attorney to carry out the employment effectively; and/or (c) Client fails to pay Attorney's fees or costs as required by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the discharge, Client will remain obligated to pay Attorney at the agreed rates for all services provided and to reimburse Attorney for all costs advanced.

9. Conclusion Of Services. When Attorney's services conclude, whether by completing the services covered by this Agreement, or by discharge or withdrawal, all unpaid charges for fees or costs will be due and payable immediately. Client may have access to Client's case file at Attorney's office at any reasonable time.

10. Disclaimer Of Guarantee And Estimates. Nothing in this Agreement and nothing in Attorney's statements to Client will be construed as a promise or guarantee about the outcome of the matter. Attorney makes no such promises or guarantees. Comments made by Attorney about the possible outcome of Client's legal matters are expressions of opinion only, are neither promises nor guarantees, and will not be construed as promises or guarantees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client's total fees for services under this Agreement will not exceed the Fee Cap set forth in Section 4.

11. Professional Liability Insurance Disclosure. Under California Rule of Professional Conduct 1.4.2.(a), I am informing you in writing that I have professional liability insurance.

12. No Tax Advice. Attorney has not been retained to provide Client with any tax advice concerning any of the services described in Section 2. Any documents prepared by Attorney may have specific tax ramifications. To be sure Client understands and is certain of all the potential tax consequences, Client should consult with tax advisors regarding these matters.

13. Arbitration

13.1 Any dispute between Attorney and Client regarding the construction, application or performance of any services under this Agreement, and any claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its breach, including, without limitation, claims for breach of contract, professional negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud and disputes regarding attorney fees and/or costs charged under this Agreement (except as provided in Paragraph B below) shall be submitted to binding arbitration upon the written request of one party after the service of that request on the other party. The venue for the arbitration and any post-award proceeding to confirm, correct or vacate the award shall be San Diego County, California. Client and Attorney confirm that they have read and understand Section 14.1 above, and voluntarily agree to binding arbitration. In doing so, Client and Attorney voluntarily give up important constitutional rights to trial by judge or jury, as well as rights to appeal. Client may consult with an independent lawyer of Client's choice to review these arbitration provisions, and this entire agreement, prior to signing this Agreement.

13.2 Notwithstanding Section 14.1 above, the parties acknowledge that in any dispute over attorney's fees, costs or both subject to the jurisdiction of the State of California over attorney's fees, charges, costs or expenses, Client has the right to elect arbitration pursuant to procedures as set forth in California Business and Professions Code Sections 6200–6206 (the Mandatory Fee Arbitration Act). If, after receiving a Notice of Client's Right to Fee Arbitration, Client does not elect to proceed under the Mandatory Fee Arbitration Act procedures by failing to file a request for fee arbitration within 30 days, any dispute over fees, charges, costs or expenses, will be resolved by binding arbitration as provided in the previous Section 14.1. Arbitration under the Mandatory Fee Arbitration Act is non-binding unless the parties agree in writing, after the dispute has arisen, to be bound by the arbitration award. The Mandatory Fee Arbitration Act procedures permit a court trial after non-binding arbitration, or a subsequent binding contractual arbitration if the parties have agreed to binding arbitration, if either party rejects the award within 30 days after the award is mailed to the parties.

14. Mediation. Attorney and Client agree to try to settle all disputes between them through private mediation before initiating any arbitration, litigation, or other dispute resolution procedure. The disputes that are subject to mediation include without limitation the following: claims regarding the construction, application or performance of services, claims for breach of contract, professional negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud and attorney's fees and costs. Any party to the agreement may initiate mediation through service of a written demand in person or by mail or, if agreed to by the parties in advance, by e-mail to the opposing party. The mediation session will occur at a time mutually agreed upon by the parties in consultation with a mutually selected mediator, though no later than  days after the date of services of the initial notice, unless otherwise agreed by the parties and mediator. Each party shall bear its own fees and costs for the mediation. Under Evidence Code section 1129(a), Attorney is required to provide notice and have Client acknowledge certain confidentiality restrictions prior to participating in mediation. Attorney will provide Client with the Notice and Acknowledgement form.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties. No other agreement, statement, or promise made on or before the effective date of this Agreement will be binding on the parties.

16. Severability In Event Of Partial Invalidity. If any provision of this Agreement is held in whole or in part to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of that provision and of the entire Agreement will be severable and remain in effect.

17. Modification By Subsequent Agreement. This Agreement may be modified by subsequent agreement of the parties only by an instrument in writing signed by both of them.

18. Effective Date. This Agreement will govern all legal services performed by Attorney on behalf of Client commencing with the date Attorney first performed services. The date at the beginning of this Agreement is for reference only. Even if this Agreement does not take effect, Client will be obligated to pay Attorney the reasonable value of any services Attorney may have performed for Client.

THE PARTIES HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THE FOREGOING TERMS AND AGREE TO THEM AS OF THE DATE ATTORNEY FIRST PROVIDED SERVICES. IF MORE THAN ONE CLIENT SIGNS BELOW, EACH AGREES TO BE LIABLE, JOINTLY AND SEVERALLY, FOR ALL OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. CLIENT WILL RECEIVE A FULLY EXECUTED COPY OF THIS AGREEMENT.
